

Alea Jacarandas

Author/Director: Hassen Ferhani

Producer: Les Films du Bilboquet

Country: Algeria, France

Length: 78'

In Algiers, a writer embarks on a poetic mapping of jacarandas, those purple-flowering trees from Latin America. His filmmaker son follows him on this intimate journey, where the father's stories sketch a loving dictionary of the city. Their intertwined perspectives compose the story of a transmission.

Awards: Jury Prize in the Burning Lights Competition, Visions du Réel, Switzerland /
Harrell Special Jury Mention, Camden International Film Festival, USA / TIME OF HISTORY. Best Film Award, SEMINCI, Spain /

Festivals:
World Premiere: Visions du Réel, Burning Lights, Switzerland /
DOXA, Vancouver, Canada /
FID Marseille, France /
Festival cinémas d'Afrique Lausanne, Switzerland /
États généraux du film documentaire, France /
DMZ International Documentary Film Festival, South Korea /
Camden International Film Festival, USA /
SEMINCI, Spain /
IDFA - Signed, Netherlands

Coproduction: Tact Production, Guelta Films

Coproduction TV: Arte France - La lucarne

TV participation: Aljazeera Documentary Channel

Original version: Arabic, French

Credits:
Author: Hassen Ferhani, Ameziane Ferhani, Juliette Flamant. Director: Hassen Ferhani. Sound: Lamine Bouaziz, Hocine MELLAL, Karim Moussaoui. editing: Léa CHATAURET, Rodolphe MOLLA. music: Hakim HAMADOUCHE

https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1416&lang=en