Argentinian Diary

Author/Director: Lupe Pérez Garcia

Producer: Impossible Films

Country: Spain

Length: 79'

"I have a problem. I could never tell my left from my right." Convinced that this inaptitude comes from a childhood trauma, Guadalupe Pérez Garcia returns to her country of origin, Argentina, that she left with her family during the financial crash of 2002.
With a great sense of burlesque, she starts a personnel journey along with her mother and step-father into Argentina's chaotic history which is surely at the origin of her difficulties of orientation.

Awards: Young Jury prize : vision du réel - Nyon 2006
Mención Especial del Jurado Festival Alcances de Cádiz (España)

Coproduction TV: TVE, TVCatalunya, Canal+ Espagne

Original version: Spanish

Versions available:
English version
French version
Originale version

Credits:
Director : Lupe Pérez Garcia, photography : Carlos Essman, music : German Cancian

https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=269&lang=en