
Abdelkrim and the Rif War

Author/Director: Daniel Cling

Producer: Iskra

Country: France, Morroco

Length: 50'

Officially, the Rif war was fought from 1920 to 1926, to crush the rebellion towards independance led by AbdelKrim in a remote area of Morocco. This war involved hundreds of thousands of men and considerable resources. The Rif war not only called into question the colonial system, but it also marked the place where modern savagery developed.

Awards: Prix « MEMOIRE DE LA MEDITERRANEE » Parrainé par l'Institut National de l'Audiovisuel
Prix à la diffusion VIA STELLA
Prix à la diffusion TV5 Monde

Coproduction: Real Productions, France
Cinemaat Films, Maroc

Coproduction TV: ARTE France

Original version: French, Arab, Spanish

Versions available:
French version
German version
Spanish version

Credits:
Author, Director : Daniel Cling, photography : Isabelle Razavet, Sound :Philippe Fabbri, editing : Anne-Marie C.Leduc, Gilles Volta, music :Frederic Boulard

https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1113&lang=en