

Dayana Mini Market

Author/Director: Floriane Devigne

Producer: SISTER Productions

Country: France

Length: 54'

After being evicted from their housing, the Kamalanathan family, who arrived from Sri Lanka nearly 30 years ago, moved into the cramped backroom of their grocer's shop. This film, filled with tenderness and audacity, and peppered by Bollywood-style musical interludes sung by the protagonists, also inevitably raises the problem of integration and the generation gap.
