

Draw Me Saint-Exupéry

Author/Director: Andrès Jarach

Producer: Quark productions

Country: France

Length: 52'

On the 31st of July 1944, Antoine de Saint-Exupéry disappeared over the Mediterranean Sea. With this mystery, a myth was born.

Who was the man whose book The Little Prince was translated into more than 250 languages and dialects?

The film looks back at different moments of his intense life with an ironic look on the myth. Film archives and « drawn archives » help narrate the story told over the course of a flight.

---

Festivals:

Le Grand Bivouac, Albertville France

Coproduction: INA

Coproduction TV: France 3

Original version: French

Versions available:

English version

French version

Credits:

Author: Andrès Jarach, Alain Moreau. Director: Andrès Jarach. editing: Josiane Zardoya. music: Etienne Charry

<http://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1223&lang=en>