

The Grocer's Son, the Mayor, the Village and the World

Author/Director: Claire Simon

Producer: Petit à Petit production

Country: France

Length: 111'

In Lussas, in the South of France, a small group of people has gathered in an old house which used to be the town's grocery store. Among the vineyards and orchards of cherry trees in blossom, a business is being set up that is quite unique in the rural world: an ultra-modern platform to broadcast independent documentary films on the Internet.

Festivals:

IDFA (Amsterdam, Netherlands) - Compétition Internationale, 2020 /
RIDM (Montréal, Canada), 2020 /
Festival dei Popoli (Florence, Italy) - 2020 /
DocPoint Helsinki (Finland) /
Thessaloniki TIDFF (Greece) 2021 /
TrueFalse (USA) 2021 /
DOXA (Canada) 2021 /
MIDFF Doker, Special Competition (Russia) 2021 /
First Look at the MoMI - Museum of the Moving Image, Opening Night film (USA) 2021 /
Atlantida Mallorca Film Festival (Spain) /
Dokufest (Prizren, Kosovo) /
Etats généraux du film documentaire (Lussas, France) /
Yalta IFF, Crimea /
Tabakalera - Centre International de la Culture Contemporaine (Saint-Sébastien (Espagne) /
Foro Internacional de la Cineteca (Mexico City) /
Centro Sperimentale di Cinematografia (Palermo Sicile Italie) /
Cinémathèque du Québec et Tenk.ca (Canada) /

Coproduction: Les films de la caravane, Clin d'oeil films

TV participation: RTBF

Original version: French

Versions available:

French version
English version

Credits:

Author Director: Claire Simon. photography: Claire Simon. Sound: Virgile van Ginneken, Pierre Bompy, Vincent Brunier, Daniel Capeille, Eric Ghersinu, Grégory Lemaître, Arnaud Marten, Maya Rosa. editing: Luc Forveille. music: Nicolas Repac

<http://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1282&lang=en>