

A Sense of Justice

Author/Director: Swen De Pauw

Producer: SEPPIA

Country:

Length: 97'

Mai?tres Christine Mengus, Nohra Boukara and Audrey Scarinoff put their hearts and souls into defending immigrants in France. As firsthand witnesses to the absurd situations in which their clients find themselves, in their hands lies the fate of women, men and children, whose lives hang on these judicial decisions. As allies against the coldness of the administration and the stiffness of the justice system, these women are for many, the lawyers of the last chance.

Festivals:

FID, Marseille, (France) /

Etats Généraux de Lussas (France) /

Coproduction: PROJECTILE

Credits:

Director: Swen De Pauw, photography: Hervé Roesch, Sound: Martin Sadoux, editing: Laureline Delom

<http://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1294&lang=en>