

Visitors to the Louvre

Author/Director: Olivier Horn

Producer: Quark productions

Country: France

Length: 52'

Visiting the Louvre begins outside with an interminable one or two-hour queue. So what! Visitors are prepared for a long adventure.

This film presents the portrait of a diverse public whose many voices speak of their presence at the museum, their expectations and the content of their visits.

Supposing the Louvre visitors were also, in their own way, a work of art? This is a film about the relationship between people and works of art.

Coproduction: Musée du Louvre, Forum des Images, TCC

Original version: Française

Versions available:

French version

English version

Credits:

Director : Olivier Horn, photography : Mourad Chefai, Sound : Graciela Barrault, editing : Anne Riegel, music : Michel Portal, commentary : Nicole Doguet, Olivier Horn

<https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=134&lang=en>