

Mali, the Lost War Against Terrorism

Author/Director: Nathalie Prévost, Olivier Jobard

Producer: Solent Production

Country: France

Length: 52'

The film explores the roots of the crisis that has fractured Mali and spread across neighboring countries. It highlights the dual failure of the fight against terrorism and the Malian state's inability to provide essential services to its population. Political leaders, military figures, traditional and religious authorities, fighters, and Malian citizens offer their perspectives on the complex dynamics driving this crisis, which has undermined democracy and dashed the hopes born from the country's independence.
