

Berehynia - Women of Kyiv

Author/Director: Vito Robbiani

Producer: Wild Productions

Country: Italy

Length: 52'

In Kyiv, a group of women, the editorial staff of ELLE Ukraine, continue to publish the famous fashion and beauty magazine despite the war surrounding them. The exceptionality of a surreal everyday life between interviews and volunteer activities accompanied by the sound of sirens is a modern metaphor for the struggle between good and evil. The protagonists demonstrate extraordinary resilience, reacting to brutality by opposing it with beauty, culture and determination. An intimate look at how normality becomes an act of rebellion and courage, with the stories of four women intertwined in the beating heart of a struggling Kyiv.

Festivals:

Solothurner Filmtage - Panorama Kurzfilm @Switzerland / Festival Internazionale del Documentario Visioni dal Mondo @Italia

Coproduction: mediaTREE productions

TV participation: RSI, SRF

Original version: Ukrainian

Credits:

Author: Andrea Oreni, Vito Robbiani, photography: Vito Robbiani, Andrii Vashkiv, Sound: Michele Vassalli, editing: Samir Samperisi, music: Michele Vassalli

<https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1404&lang=en>