

Nicole Nicole

Author/Director: Lauren Dällenbach

Producer: Luna Films

Country: Switzerland

Length: 81'

Nicole, 55, and her mother Alberte, 87, live together in a villa on the shores of Lake Geneva. Through their habits, they become trapped in codependency: Nicole seems incapable of autonomy, while Alberte is terrified at the idea of being alone. But as she grows closer to Lauren, her filmmaker niece, Nicole begins to explore the possibility of emancipation. A family film that adopts gentleness as its driving force.

Festivals:

World premiere Visions du Réel, National Competiton, Switzerland

Coproduction: Les Films de la pépinière

Coproduction TV: RTS Radio Télévision Suisse
Lyon Capitale TV

TV participation: France Télévisions
ICI Centre-Val de Loire

Original version: French

Credits:

Director: Lauren Dällenbach. photography: Greg Bindschedler, Lauren Dällenbach, Charlotte Muller. Sound: Camille Bonard, Julien Matthey, Théo Panagia, Ilù Seydoux. editing: Emma Augier. music: Vincent Tille

<https://www.andanafilms.com/catalogueFiche.php?idFiche=1420&lang=en>